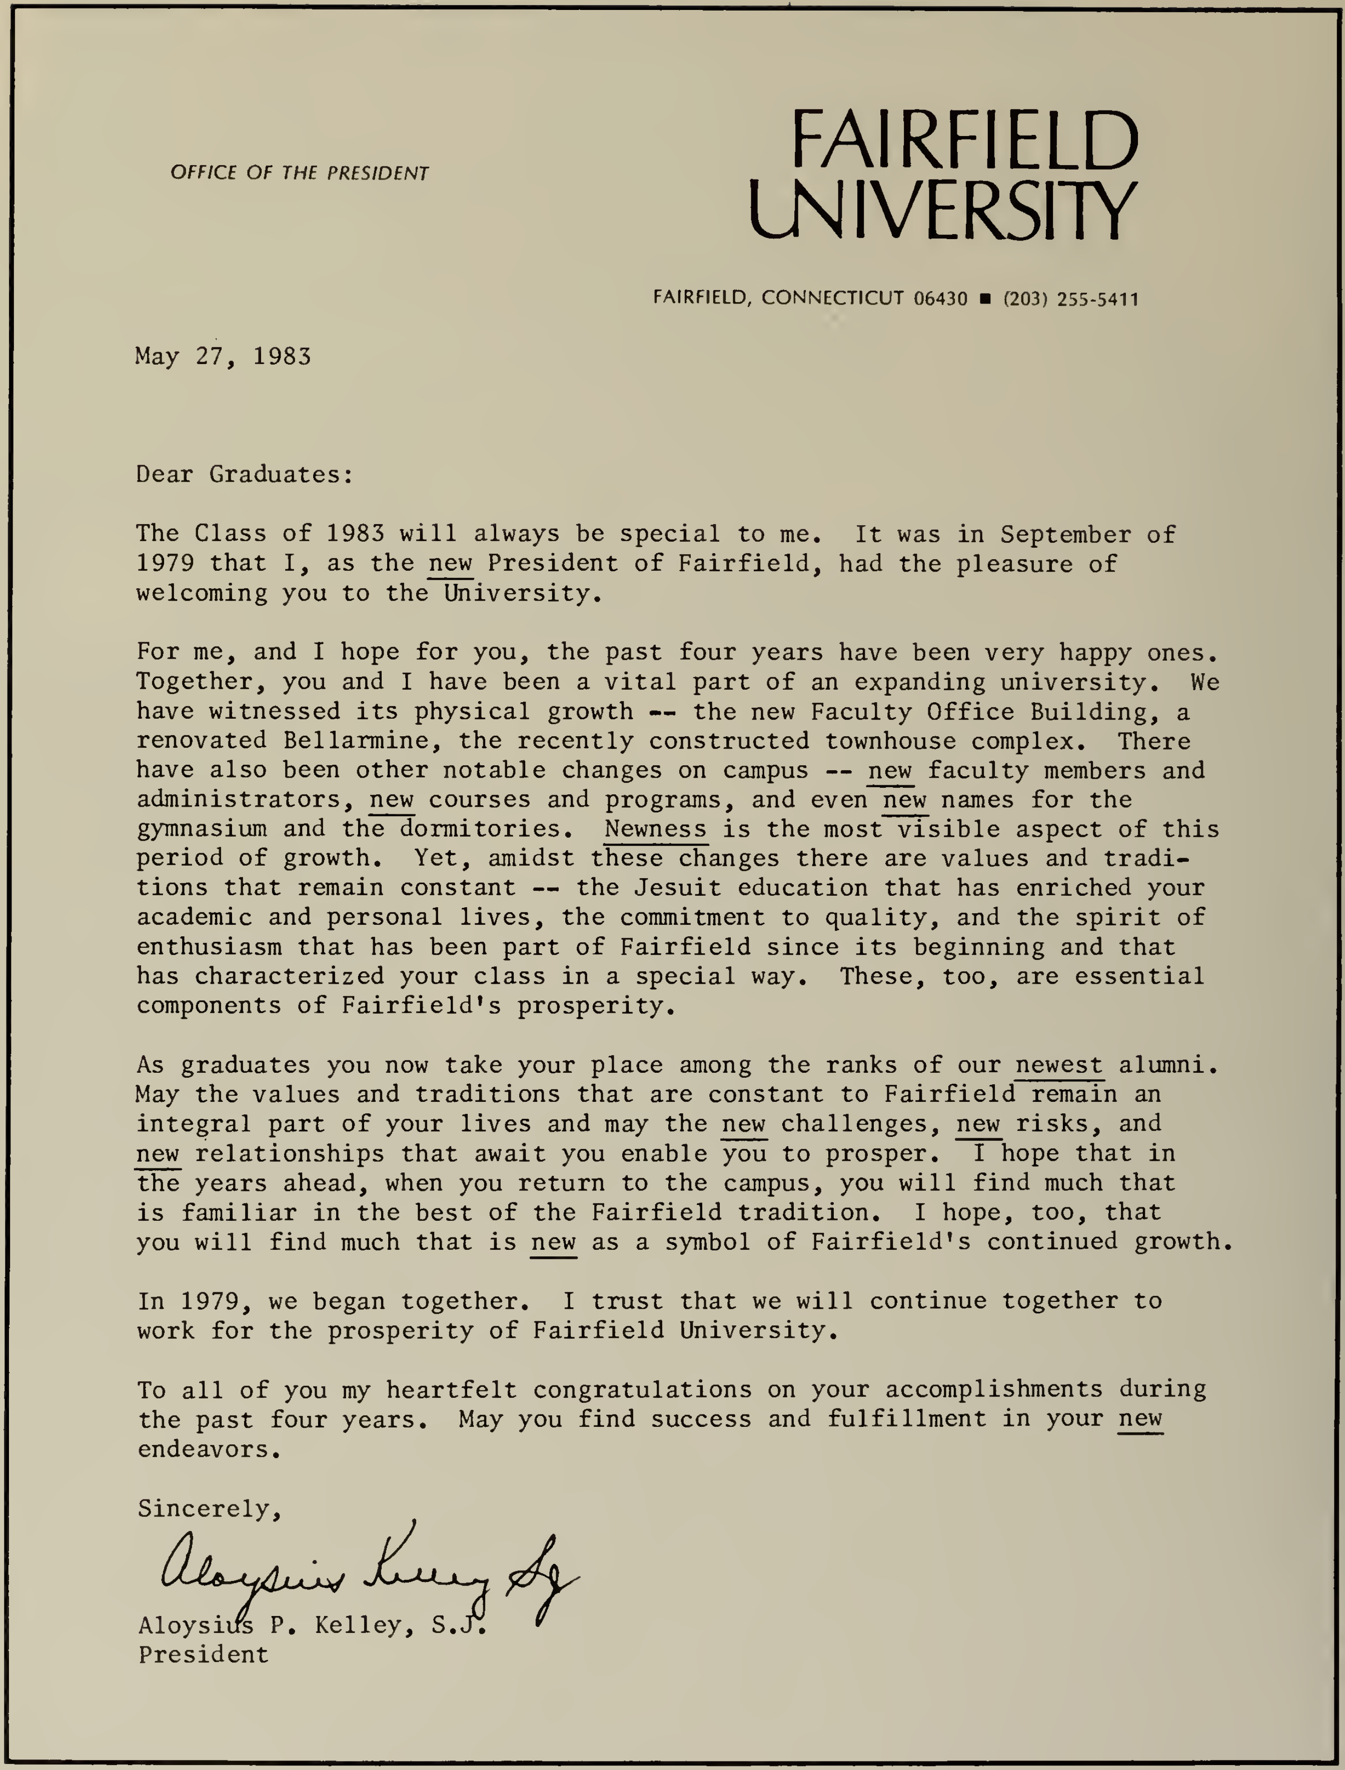
Fairfield, Connecticut



OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

FAIRFIELD
UNIVERSITY

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT 06430 ■ (203) 255-5411

May 27, 1983

Dear Graduates:

The Class of 1983 will always be special to me. It was in September of 1979 that I, as the new President of Fairfield, had the pleasure of welcoming you to the University.

For me, and I hope for you, the past four years have been very happy ones. Together, you and I have been a vital part of an expanding university. We have witnessed its physical growth -- the new Faculty Office Building, a renovated Bellarmine, the recently constructed townhouse complex. There have also been other notable changes on campus -- new faculty members and administrators, new courses and programs, and even new names for the gymnasium and the dormitories. Newness is the most visible aspect of this period of growth. Yet, amidst these changes there are values and traditions that remain constant -- the Jesuit education that has enriched your academic and personal lives, the commitment to quality, and the spirit of enthusiasm that has been part of Fairfield since its beginning and that has characterized your class in a special way. These, too, are essential components of Fairfield's prosperity.

As graduates you now take your place among the ranks of our newest alumni. May the values and traditions that are constant to Fairfield remain an integral part of your lives and may the new challenges, new risks, and new relationships that await you enable you to prosper. I hope that in the years ahead, when you return to the campus, you will find much that is familiar in the best of the Fairfield tradition. I hope, too, that you will find much that is new as a symbol of Fairfield's continued growth.

In 1979, we began together. I trust that we will continue together to work for the prosperity of Fairfield University.

To all of you my heartfelt congratulations on your accomplishments during the past four years. May you find success and fulfillment in your new endeavors.

Sincerely,

Aloysius Kelley SJ

Aloysius P. Kelley, S.J.

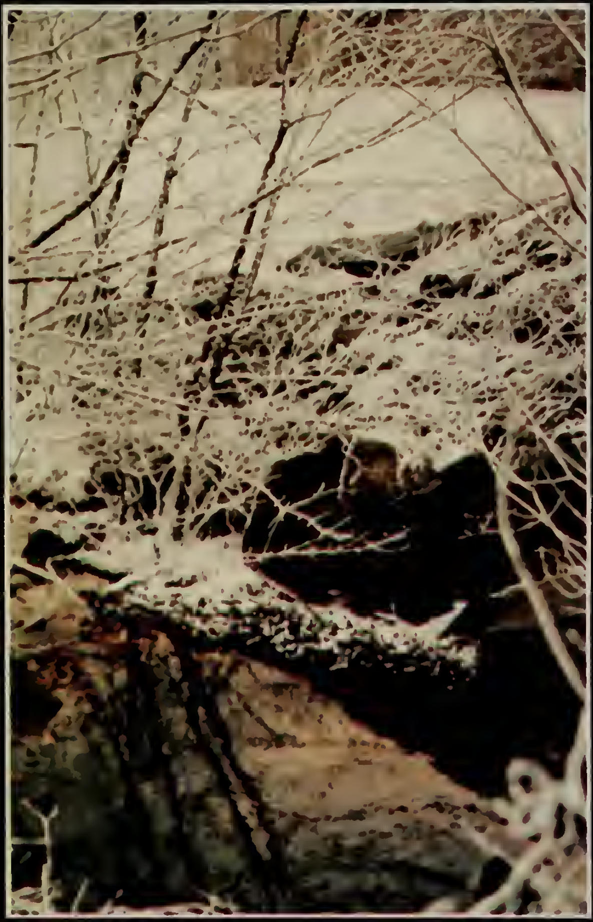
DEDICATION

On behalf of the Class of 1983, the MANOR editorial staff wishes to recognize the determination, compassion, and involvement of a man who has been a major part of Fairfield University for the past four years. His truly outstanding service to the Fairfield University community has individually touched the lives of all of us who have come to know him; whether it be as teacher, chaplain, or friend. And so for the time we have shared together, for the love and friendship that he has shown to so many of us, we are proud to dedicate the 1983 MANOR to Father Victor F. Leeber, S.J.

CAMPUS CENTER



A New Housing

TOWNHOUSES

On November 16, 1981, University President Fr. Aloysius Kelley and Provost John Barone broke ground in the northeast corner of campus, opening the way for a new student townhouse complex. Despite some delays, moving day, September 6, 1982, came right on schedule for 200 junior and senior residents.

The townhouses provide students with the independence of living on their own and the convenience of living on campus. Residents pay utility bills and file maintainence requests with the townhouse business office. Also a Townhouse Association has been established to serve as a communication link between residents and administration.

In just one short year the townhouses have developed into a tight knit social community open to the entire campus.

We Stand Upon the Seashore

A ship spreads it's white sails to the morning breeze
And starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength,
And we watch her as she sails away,
Until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud
Just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other.
Then someone says, "There, she's gone."
Gone? Gone? Where? Gone from our sight — that is all.
She is just as big in hull and mast and span
As she was when she left the shore,
And just as able to bear the burden to the place of destination.
At the moment when we are saying, "There, she's gone."
Other eyes are watching her coming to the other side,
And other voices are ready to take up the glad shout.

"There. She comes."

In Loving Memory of our classmates:

The graduation of the Class of 1983 marks an end to an eventful four years at Fairfield University. While our days as undergraduates have since faded into history, the memories of these times will live on forever. They may be touched off by a glance at a yearbook picture, the mentioning of a friend's name, or an unexpected phone call or letter in the mail. And so, as our collegiate years grow farther behind and the memories of them become more difficult to recall, the MANOR would like to help you remember the best moments of your Fairfield years by sharing this list of headlines with you:

field hockey

The Fairfield University women's field field hockey team concluded its winningest season ever with a 9-5 record. Prior to this season, last year's 5-5-3 mark had been the best effort the Lady Stags had ever managed. Despite having their finest showing of their brief history, the Fairfield stickers were unable to duplicate their feats of a year ago when they were selected for the AIAW regionals. The reason for their not having been tendered an invitation was that the Lady Stags, this season, jumped from Division III to the more competitive Division I level. Pacing Marilyn Rowe's club was freshman scoring sensation Janet Kendall. Other top scorers on the Fairfield squad were Lauren Lam, Catherine Mulry, and Sue Harrison. The Lady Stags were quite stingy on defense this past season and it was due in large part to the fine goal tending they received from Sue Weyant and Trish Hoffman. Among the big wins this season for Fairfield were a 7-0 season's opening win at WesConn, and a 4-0 triumph against crosstown opponent Bridgeport. With a strong nucleus returning for next season, the Lady Stags appear to be headed for a succession of winning campaigns. Losing just three seniors from a 16 player squad only signals bright spots on the horizon for Coach Rowe.

ice hockey

The Stags, an optimistic group entering the season, came up short in a few big games and ended the year at 10-13 overall and 10-12 in ECAC Division III play. Fairfield was led throughout the year by their two fine forwards, Steve Festa and Jack Smith. Festa topped the 50 point mark with 22 goals and 31 assists. The 53 points placed him second among ECAC Division III skaters. Smith, just a sophomore, contributed 20 goals and 28 assists which placed him fifth on the scoring list. The season began well for the Stags as Festa banged in 5 goals to lead Fairfield to a 9-4 opening win over St. Johns. After dropping a tough 8-6 match at Fitchburg, the men were dropped 8-3 at Iona. They did pull themselves together, however, and went on to win 3 of their next four games. Included in that stretch was a runner-up finish in the Wesleyan Tournament. The host Cardinals, another Division III post season participant, nipped the Stags 4-2 in the final. After beating St. John's to raise their Division record to 6-4, the Stags lost 5 of their next 6 games to fall 7-9 and saw their tourney hopes disappear.

women's tennis

The Fairfield University women's tennis team finished their 1982 season on a down note as they dropped a 5-2 match to Wesleyan. For the Lady Stags, they ended the campaign with a 2-10 ledger. Despite only registering a pair of wins all season long, both triumphs were decisive as they were by margins of 9-0 against the University of New Haven and Queens College. The Fairfield women also lost a couple of heartbreaking 5-4 cliffhangers to the University of Bridgeport and Pace University. Senior captain, Penny Wolfe, playing in the number one singles slot turned in a 5-7 record for the Lady Stags. Despite having her second straight losing season, Fairfield's O'Mara remains optimistic about her club's prospects for the 1983 campaign. "We will only be graduating one senior from a team of nine, so we will have a strong nucleus returning next year," said the netter's mentor. "In addition, for 6 of our 9 women, this past season was their first on the intercollegiate level." Coach O'Mara also pointed to the fact that many of her youthful charges fared well in the recent New England Women's Championships and that boded well for next year. All in all, the Lady Stags, in 1983, will be out to reverse their recent two-year downward slide and return to their winning ways.

football

In his first season as head coach Randy Coppolla's football team had a disappointing season, finishing with a 2-7 record. Offensively, the Stag's leading rusher was sophomore Tucker Cambell. Three of the team's players were voted All-American: Paul DeMarco, Bob Meyers, and Tony Deluca, team captain. The gridders began the year with three losses, but came back by winning their next two games against Siena and Eastern Ct. Unfortunately the rest of the season was all downhill as the Stags went on to lose their last four games of the season. With plenty of returning players Coach Coppolla is hoping for a winning season next year.

Paul Davis's rugby team had a fantastic season in 1983 as the A, B, and C teams won their every game, beating Boston College, Southern Connecticut, Providence, and St. Anselm's. The C team came away with three shutouts out of their four games. In Fairfield's Second Annual Rugby Tournament Fairfield came out on top as they beat Oberlin 17-13 in overtime and then went on to win against Manhattanville in the finals, 14-6. Two of the leading scorers for the Stags were Paul Sheehy and Connor Gaynor, both of whom who will be returning next season. Davis can certainly be proud of his ruggers as they had the best record this year of any of the Fairfield teams.

The Fairfield University soccer team, coming off a school record setting season a year ago, had a disappointing season this year with a 3-15-1 record. Coach Kuhlmann lost three of his four top scorers of last year to graduation so the losing season was not too much of a surprise. The team started the year with a 4-1 loss to Providence. The Stags didn't get their first win until mid-way through the season by a 2-1 victory over Connecticut College. They finished up the season on a bright note when winning two of their last three games. Tom LaTourette and Mark O'Leary were the team captains this year and Tom Donino was the lone senior starter. With few players graduating, next year looks very promising for Coach Kuhlmann's team.

women's basketball

Coach Nolan's netters had another winning season in 1982-83 with a 18-11 record. The team started the year with a 58-54 win over East Carolina, but then went on to lose their next two games to Boston University and Northeastern. An eight game winning streak in the middle of the season included victories over Harvard, St. Peter's, and Fordham. The women competed in the Warner Classic, the Dial Hurricane Classic, and the ECAC Championships this year. Leading the team in both scoring and rebounding with 486 points was sophomore sensation Katrina Fields. Carolyn Hodges and Kelly Stryker also contributed greatly to the team. With few members of the team graduating, the future looks very promising for Coach Nolan's team.

men's tennis

The men's tennis team concluded a highly successful campaign with a fine showing in the New England Championships. After completing the regular season with an 8-5 ledger followed by a fourth place finish in the MAAC tournament, the Stag netters ended up fifth out of 27 participating teams in the New England Tourney. In addition to its overall performance, Fairfield, coach by Dr. Joe Grassi, was the top Connecticut college combine in the tournament. On the regular season, Rome Lillicraf was the top singles performer with five wins along with a second place finish in the MAAC championships. Lillicraf also teamed up with Rich O'Keefe to form the Stags' top doubles team with a record of 7-3. In addition, O'Keefe, playing in the #5 singles competition was the runner up in the MAAC Championships. Looking ahead to next season Grassi loses three players, Brian Murphy, Ray Cunningham, and Eric Lemieux to graduation. He will return eight seasoned veterans from this year's squad.

baseball

While the overall season produced a disappointing 6-22 record, the baseball team came up with some of its best efforts in game against Metro Atlantic Conference teams, winning four of five MAAC games and walking off with the conference crown. The title was the first for a Fairfield team in the brief two-year history of the conference. In conference play the Stags of head coach Don Cook defeated Iona, St. Peter's, Fordham and Manhattan while losing only to Army. Despite the lackluster record, there were several individual stars for the Stags. Senior first baseman Carm Farese had an outstanding all around year. He led the team in several offensive categories. Farese hit a team-high of .324, and had a field percentage of .980. His 34 hits, 20 runs batted in, and 18 runs scored were all team highs. Also hitting above the .300 mark were Mark Portanova and Mike Della Vecchia. Among the pictures, junior righthander Dave Caseria had the most success with a 3-3 record. The other three wins went to senior lefty Keith D'Amato. Coach Cook will have five players graduating from his spring's team.

men's basketball

The men's basketball team bettered their last year's record of 11-18 by finishing up the season at the .500 mark with a 14-14 ledger. They started the year off well with four straight victories, and the first loss was to Notre Dame. However the end of the season wasn't as good as the beginning as the Stags dropped seven of their last eight games, with their only win over New Hampshire. Pete DeBisschop, the team captain, led the men as high scorer and rebounder. DeBisschop, a senior, scored 543 points this season and finished his Fairfield career with a total of 1219 points. He was invited to play at the Portsmouth Invitational, one of the top post season all star games in the country, and was an All-MAAC pick, named to the All-New England team, and an All-East and All-America honorable mention. Tony George contributed to the team this past season with 398 points, while Jerry Johnson scored 302. Next year looks bright for the Stags as they lose only one senior starter, DeBisschop.

1983 MANOR

The 1983 Manor of Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut was printed in an edition of 650 copies with 248 pages. The book was set in offset lithography by Herff Jones Yearbooks located in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

The first sixteen pages were printed on a high gloss German stock paper. The rest of the book was printed on 80# Ainsworth paper stock. There are 23 pages of full process color.

The cover is custom embossed with a metallay application of the school seal. The cover material is Vibra Tex Crimson # 41006 with a black overtone rub; the grain is Spanish. It is mounted on 160 point binders board.

The endsheets are one applied color, different front and back.

The book is smith sewn in sixteen page signatures, trimmed to 9" X 12", and rounded and backed.

All captions and body copy are done in 10 and 12 point Garamond Bold Throughout using italics as an emphasis face. Headlines appear in the same style in 18 and 30 point bold.

1983 Manor

Dear Graduate,

By the time you receive this book, any thoughts of Fairfield University may be furthest from your mind. You now face new challenges, new beginnings, and strive to seek new goals as you broaden your horizons. I hope that the arrival of your yearbook will help to awaken, now and in the future, memories of your years spent here at Fairfield University.

This edition of the Fairfield Manor was published through the collective efforts of my staff, and many others to whom I would now like to extend my thanks. First of all, to our moderator, Jim Fitzpatrick and his staff: Bea, Stan, Lisa, Tom, and Dave; also to the Mailroom; Delma Studios; Public Relations photographer, Kevin Wolfthal; and special thanks to Marge Scheidl, our Herff Jones Yearbook Representative. I would also like to extend a very special thanks to my staff, for it was through their dedication and creativity that this book became possible.

As you venture out into the world to set your goals and find your dreams, I hope the experiences of your college years will help to guide your paths, and lighten any of the dark moments of your life. You should be proud of yourself and your accomplishments achieved here at Fairfield University, and I wish you much success, luck and happiness in the future.

It's hard to say goodbye to a friend . . .

The times we've shared, the laughter, the tears . . .

we've seen it all . . .

lived through it all . . .

The moment has come . . .

the road divides, our path must part . . .

but throughout time, our friendship lasts.

And so I say . . .

remember me, and our time spent here . . .

for though our paths, by chance, may never cross again . . .

our memories will last a lifetime.
